Ulrike Möltgen & Michael Stavarič
Milli Rabbit on the Run*
Book design by Franziska Walther

Milli Rabbit is a shy little creature. Scared of the dangers that lurk everywhere the small rabbit runs off, shaking with fear! Milli seeks shelter in the woods, on the fields, and even in the big noisy city. When she has almost given up, a miracle happens and Milli need not hide anymore!

Ulrike Möltgen's vividly colored collages and Michael Stavarič's poetical words give this enchanting and meaningful fable.

The Green Cat

Text and Illustrations by Yvonne Kuschel

Though the green cat and the curious – funny dog share the same hill, they are as different as day and night. And when they bump into each other, two worlds clash. But then the dog learns new things and discovers unsuspected sides of himself. The canine presence in the cat's life carries consequences, too. Who said cats and dogs don't mix?

With colorful and characteristic felt pen drawings. Spacey op-art.

The Big Alphabet Robbery

Illustrations by Thomas Riegler

Text by Christian Sovà

The big alphabet robbery is a small manifesto speaking out against censorship and conformity in our lives. Author and illustrator as a team created this highly original interplay between words and pictures, which intensify each other thereby adding levels of intricate meaning. Addictive reading in rhymes, as well as a statement on language, power, and creative resistance.

Finn Flosse Cleans up the Ocean

Text and Illustrations by Eva Plaputta

For children aged six and above

Finn Flosse, son of a mermaid and a human father, is by all means a special inhabitant of the sea. When an unidentified invasion of colored objects and waves threatens the well-being of his friends – as indigestion or tricky traps – he jumps on to the track of the mystery, together with his friend Theo the Whale. This contemporary adventure tale addresses a bad problem, the careless dumping of our plastic waste into the oceans which harms and kills sea life. All the same, featuring artistic, scissor-cut silhouettes, this story is most joyous reading.

Nominated for Serafina 2015.

Roberta Bergmann
An Ape Threw a Banana one Day and 25 Animals
Came up to Play
An Animals' ABC

For children aged four and above

Brooding on a cosy branch fork, Ape Ralf gets up to mischief. This place on top seems an ideal view point to watch all the other inhabitants puttering around the big forest and its meadows on this lazy afternoon – so why not add a little speed?

The turmoil really starts when Gunter the Bear shows up, and one after another, the whole funny animal crowd gets involved. Amusing and easy rhyme couplets complement this dynamic picture story, really ideal to listen to or to learn how to read!

Nominated for the German Design Award 2016.

Konrad's Shadow

Text and Illustrations by Matze Doebele

For children aged eight and above

It's not easy to deal with one's shadow ...

Now, is it little Konrad who does all these naughty things, or is it in truth merely his shadow? Trying to get rid of this cheeky guy who does all Konrad is being accused of, but would never admit to, Konrad finds that his shadow takes immediate flight at the sight of flashlight. Well done, boy! But later on, Konrad comes to realize that his shadow can be quite helpful too, and that the two of them actually belong together.

A meaningful parable, true craftsmanship, and a fun story!

This book is the winner of the German-French Youth Literature Prize 2015

The jury praises "the variable layout, the expressive faces and clear gestures that illustrate the game of the shadow ... The drawings show a tangible, paste-like quality and a light, aerial touch all at once. To underline Konrad's battle with his opponent, Doebele plays with typography."

And then Your Head Will Burst

Text and Illustrations by Christina Röckl

What would you reply if asked, "What is the soul?" And if you asked a child? How would a child explain a term we adults have tried to define in a thousand smart books? In cooperation with children, illustrator Christina Röckl created texts which she collected and translated into striking images. Thus, an abstract idea becomes a picture book for adults invented by children – original, delightful, and deeply moving.

Five Mice, One Cat

Text and Illustrations by Ann Cathrin Raab

A black'n white cat and mouse story – or, masses of mice make a big mess and meow! This wonderful simple and concise masterpiece by prize-winning author Ann Cathrin Raab will delight all very small and all very big fans of picture books. The storyline rolls through the delusively simple drawings, which are done in a blatantly comic style. And the calm ending will please especially those who read the book aloud to their kids – for all ends well, and all sleep well!

Mascha and the Bear

A Folk Tale from Russia

Re-told and Illustrated by Renate Wacker

This simple, unpretentious story has layers of meaning! Author-illustrator Renate Wacker transferred the material to a modern setting – the wood resembles a suburban settlement, the bear figure becomes a hunter and trapper. So the saying goes ... Mascha goes out into the forest to gather berries, but she gets lost and stranded at the bear's hut. The bear keeps her there, not willing to let her leave, until at last she manages to free herself, relying solely on her own powers and wit. Now, have you ever had a similar experience?

Ringel, the Little Seahorse

Illustrated by Florian Weiß

Text by Lasse Hölck

Ringel has lost his crown and ventures out into the deep sea on an adventurous quest. This enchanting tale is accompanied by unusual illustrations that reflect the mysterious underwater worlds in a realistic and in a magical mode at once. Florian Weiß even invented a particular device for his punching technique, similar to tattoo art, and dot by dot, inch by inch these water-blue images surfaced over a period of two years! The result is a visual feast that renders Lasse Hölck's story in all breathtaking details, and offers us readers many hidden object adventures.
